Harmonica-Quartet - Harmonicamento -

Harmonicamento: Four experienced harmonica players are behind the harmonica ensemble, Harmonicamento: Brigitte Burgbacher, Kathrin Gass, Birgit Käfer and Gerhard Müller are all soloists at the Hohnerklang Orchestra which is located in Trossingen, Germany, hometown of the world leading harmonica brand, Hohner.

The Ensemble started playing for the 1997 World Harmonica Festival. Harmonicamento won the World Champion title in the group playing category in 1997 and in the open category in 2001. Kathrin Gass won the title in the chromatic solo category with a testpiece in 2001. The title of the piece which they performed then, and for which they got the first prize in 1997, inspired the current name of the ensemble.

Harmonicamento presents a big variety of musical styles such as classic, original ensemble music, light music, even folk and jazz.

During their career Harmonicamento has played several destinations such as Japan, Russia, USA, Slovenia, Austria, Switzerland, France, Poland, Estonia, and of course many, many concerts in Germany.
